MUSIC was composed, performed and recorded especially for the SLT production of "Stuart Little" by Andrew Scott Foust

The first production of the 1994-95 Youth Theatre season is scheduled for July. Audition dates to be announced.

THE CURTAIN IS GOING UP ON OUR 1994-95 SEASON.....

"DEARLY DEPARTED" - SEPTEMBER 7-11 and 16-18

This outrageous comedy by David Botrell and Jesse Jones is set in the "Baptist backwoods of the bible belt" and deals with the sudden and untimely death of the patriarch of one of the most dysfunctional families on this side of the Mason-Dixon line.

"A RAISIN IN THE SUN" - NOVEMBER 3-6 and 10-13

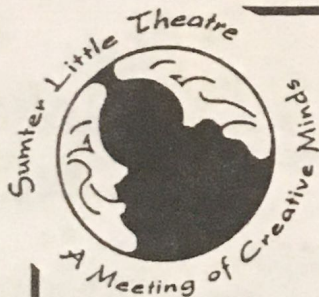

An American theatre classic, Lorraine Hansberry's drama of a black family that dreams of a better life as they face the reality of poverty and racism. As powerful today as it was 35 years ago.

"NUNSENSE" - JANUARY 19-22 and 26-29

Our first musical in three years. This clever, lively, non-stop musical, by Dan Coggin is the story of five nuns from the Little Sisters of Hoboken Convent in New Jersey, and their efforts to raise money for a very unusual cause. Fun for everyone.

"THE BOYS NEXT DOOR" - APRIL 20-23 and 27-30

A touching and delightful story about the residents of a home for the mentally handicapped. Written by Tom Griffin, the play is an enlightening look into the lives of four men, each living with mental illness, as they try to cope with society and vice versa. Audiences will laugh, cry and fall in love with "The Boys Next Door."
